

ASSOCIATION FOR EUROPEAN CARDIOVASCULAR PATHOLOGY
AECVP 9TH BIENNIAL MEETING
CAMBRIDGE, UK
10TH-12TH SEPTEMBER 2020

Day 1 – Thursday 10th September 2020

9:30-10:30	Registration, tea/coffee served
10:30-10:50	Welcome and opening ceremony
10:50-13:00	Olsen-Gourley Symposium: The hypertrophied heart Myocardial hypertrophy in vivo: use of imaging studies. Dr Lynne Williams, Cambridge Distinguishing physiological and pathological hypertrophy in athletes. Prof Sanjay Sharma, St George's, London Cardiac hypertrophy at autopsy: physiological or pathological? Prof Cristina Basso, Padua Pathways of hypertrophy in cardiac myocytes. Dr Martin Goddard, Royal Papworth Hospital, Cambridge Unusual and secondary causes of hypertrophy. Prof Mary Sheppard, St George's London Panel discussion
13:00-14:00	Lunch (and informal poster viewing)
14:00-14:40	Oral presentations x4
14:40-15:25	Keynote lecture I: Virtual histology, biomechanics, myocardial infarction, and sudden cardiac death. Prof Martin Bennett, Cambridge
15:25-16:40	Poster rounds. Coffee and cake will be served.
16:40-18:00	Symposium II: Genetics and heart disease Insights into atherosclerosis from population genetic studies. Dr Adam Butterworth, Cambridge European recommendations on Postmortem genetic test in sudden cardiac death. Dr Katarzyna Michaud, Lausanne Thoracic aortic aneurysms, genetic medicine centres and 100K genomes. Dr Sarju Mehta, Cambridge

Day 2 – Friday 11th September 2020

9:00-9:40	Keynote lecture II: Cardiac pathology in Mumbai. Prof Pradeep Vaideeswar, Mumbai
9:40-11:00	Symposium III: Global perspectives - cardiac pathology in an interconnected world Cardiac amyloidosis across ethnic groups. Prof Philip Hawkins, National Amyloidosis Centre, London HIV and the heart. Prof Ntobeko Ntusi, Cape Town Haemoglobinopathies and the heart. Prof Dudley Pennell, Royal Brompton Hospital, London
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:00	Oral presentations x3
12:00-12:30	Annual General Meeting of the AECVP
12:30-13:30	Lunch and informal poster viewing
13:30-14:15	Keynote lecture III: The heart of Leonardo: Da Vinci at five hundred (and one). Mr Francis Wells, Cambridge
14:15-14:45	Oral presentations x3
14:45-16:00	Poster rounds. Coffee and cake will be served
16:00-17:00	What is it?
17:00-18:00	Michael J Davies Distinguished Achievement Award Lecture: The pathology of medical education. Dr Patrick J Gallagher, Bristol
Evening	Gala Dinner, Christ's College

Day 3 – Saturday 12th September 2020

9:00-10:10	Symposium IV: Updates on advanced heart failure and transplantation Update on antibody mediated rejection. Prof Jean-Paul Duong-Van-Huyen, Paris Pathophysiology of haemorrhage in VAD patients. Dr Martin Besser, Cambridge Heart failure with preserved ejection fraction. Dr Stephen Pettit, Cambridge
10:10-10:40	Oral presentations x3
10:40-11:10	Coffee
11:10-12:30	Keynote lecture double bill – Adult congenital heart disease The changing landscape of adults with congenital heart disease. Prof Michael Gatzoulis, Royal Brompton Hospital, London Autopsy in adults with congenital heart disease. Prof Annalisa Angelini, Padua
12:30-13:00	Prize giving Installation of President Closing ceremony
13:00	Farewell lunch